

DANKRAINES

After reaching the final of the UKCC Young DJ of the Year 2010 aged 15, Dan has continued to fulfil his love and passion for music and entertainment, becoming a dedicated, driven and versatile young, entrepreneurial DJ.

Growing up listening to his Dad's extensive record collection, it was only a matter of time before he found the music he loved to play the most – an open-format style of floor-filling party music.

'No two sets should ever be the same, every event is different and it's my job to make people dance!'

Dan's confidence as an event host shines through in every performance. A finalist in the KISS FM presenter competition, his ability to interact with and command a crowd is a unique addition to his sets.

From bars and restaurants, to festivals and open air nightclubs in Tel Aviv, weddings in London's Park Lane hotels and summer and Christmas parties for big name brands, Dan's extensive knowledge of music, professional attitude and personality have enabled him the opportunity to play in numerous locations across the globe.

'Dan Kraines is definitely one of the most talented DJs of his generation. Hugely passionate, he works with a positive mindset and is dedicated to delivering the best experience for his audiences. He has that "X Factor" essential to any good party...'
